A bit about Meldreth

Meldreth is a village and civil parish in South Cambridgeshire, England, located around 10 miles south-west of Cambridge. Meldreth is well served by local shops with a well-stocked general store open from 7am – 10pm daily, a number of farm shops offering a range of fresh fruit, vegetables, gifts & groceries, as well as other services available including Reflections Hair Studio, Meldreth Motor Company, The Picture Framers, Gympo's gym and Meldreth Landscapes. Additional shops including a Co-op are located in the neighbouring village of Melbourn. Royston is three miles away and has a number of supermarkets and independent shops and there are excellent shopping facilities in Cambridge, about ten miles away.

Situated to the south east of the village, Meldreth Railway Station is on the Kings Cross to Kings Lynn line via Stevenage and Cambridge with trains running every 30 minutes during peak hours and every hour off peak.

The popular Meldreth Primary School, rated 'Good' by Ofsted is situated opposite the village hall and educates children from 4 to 11. There are approximately 190 pupils on roll.
