

Occupying one of the three largest plots on Langley Road and sitting on half an acre of land, this former school conversion lies upon an exceptionally wide garden stretching over 120ft in length, perfect for those seeking space, character and versatility in a prime location.

Inside, modern updates complement the homes historic charm, creating a stylish and unique living space stretching almost 2500 square feet.

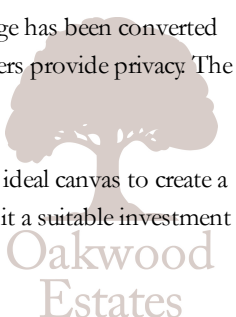

A 17ft grand hallway provides a welcoming entrance and Herringbone floor tiles path the way with underfloor heating throughout the ground floor of the house. A 23ft living room sits to the left of the property with patio doors overlooking the stunning rear garden. The 27ft kitchen diner has been attentively fitted with modern units complemented by granite worktops whilst a connected spice kitchen within the side extension contains all utility appliances.

The ground floor also features a 13ft bay-fronted reception room, currently utilised as a downstairs bedroom, study and a fully-tiled shower room.

An elegant staircase leads to four recently decorated double bedrooms on the first floor, all of which benefit fitted wardrobes. The master bedroom boasts a spacious walk-in dressing room fitted with stylish wardrobes, and en-suite with double shower cubicle and vanity units. There is an additional family bathroom and en-suite to bedroom two.

A huge driveway provides parking for approximately 20 cars and sets the property back from the road. The detached garage has been converted into a gym/office. The exceptional rear garden expands 80ft wide with a well manicured lawn and tree and shrubbery borders provide privacy. The garden is a perfect, quiet oasis for every day sun, whilst also being an excellent entertainment space.

With vast scope for extensions, the possibilities for customisation and future extension are virtually limitless, making it an ideal canvas to create a dream home. The property is situated within walking distance of three local grammar schools and Langley station, making it a suitable investment for a large family.
