Property Summary

"There is so much potential with this detached chalet bungalow found in a tucked away position in Harrietsham". - Philip Jarvis, Director.

Sitting on a plot in the regions of half an acre, this four/five bedroom property was built by the Marley family approximately a hundred years ago. The property has been extended on several occasions and now offers well proportioned accommodation.

Downstairs there is a through living/dining room with a bay window to the front and side. There is also a kitchen/breakfast room and useful utility room. There are also two bedrooms and the bathroom on this floor.

Upstairs the master bedroom boasts wardrobes to one wall and an ensuite shower room. There are two more bedrooms although the owners currently use one of these rooms as a study.

Set back from the road, Rivendell is accessed via a secluded driveway with a wooded area to one side. Having passed a five bar gate the driveway open up into an attractive circle with a lawned area within it. There is also a double garage to one side and two areas of rear garden, one with a summerhouse and patio and the other a vegetable garden.

Harrietsham is a most popular village found south of Maidstone. There is a well respected primary school, two shops and gastro pub. There is also a railway station within walking distance. Lenham approximately two miles away offers a wide range of amenities. The M20 motorway is approximately three miles away at Leeds village.
