Local Area

Cliffe Woods is a small village in the unitary authority of Medway in South East England. Cliffe and Cliffe Woods are both civil parishes in the borough of Medway in Kent. Cliffe Woods is a predominantly residential area in a semi-rural location to the north of the Medway Towns conurbation, Strood being the nearest main town. The village is principally served by the M2 / A2 motorway which passes to the south and provides access to London and the rest of Kent. Cliffe Woods is connected to Strood via the B2000 and the relatively recently constructed Wainscott Bypass, the A289 (which links directly to the M2). There are local primary and junior schools in the village, plus there are good secondary schools within easy reach.
