LOCATION

Newby lies in the centre of a picturesque triangle of countryside between Penrith to the north, Appleby to the south-east and M6, J38 to the south west. There are numerous villages of which Newby is just one, and the area provides a good range of day to day facilities - primary and secondary schools, churches, public houses and sports clubs. Penrith and Appleby cater well for everyday needs and there is easy access to Carlisle, Kendal or Keswick. Direct rail services link Penrith to Scotland, Manchester Airport, and London Euston and the Yorkshire Dales and Lake District National Park are also near at hand.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Situated on the edge of the village of Newby with superb views across the open countryside, The Barn is a spacious, detached family home. The generous accommodation briefly comprises entrance hall, dining lounge, dining kitchen, two bedrooms, bathroom, shower room/utility and rear hall to the ground floor with a further two substantial double bedrooms to the first floor. Externally there are mature, wraparound gardens laid to lawn with Indian sandstone patio, vegetable patch to the side and courtyard to the rear. To the front of the property there is offroad driveway parking for two cars and a single garage with workshop.
