Owner's View

We bought the house in 2020, and made lots of alterations due to the versatility of the property, knocking out walls and creating an en-suite to the front bedroom. We extended at the back and landscaped the garden (which is quite spacious, and added a summerhouse with a bar) so the outlook is lovely. We have added a new kitchen and generally updated the bungalow throughout. We are downsizing now and our beautiful home is ready for a family.
