LOCATION

The property enjoys a stunning rural position some 5 miles inside the Bannau Brycheiniog National Park, 5 miles from the popular Village of Llangadog, 10 miles equidistance from the Market Town of Llandeilo and Llandovery, approximately 25 miles from the County Town and Administrative Centre of Carmarthen with access to the M4 Motorway and National Rail Networks.

The Village of Llangadog benefits from a Post Office, Butchers Shop, a small General Store, Public Houses, Doctors Surgery and a Primary School. There is also a small Railway Station on the edge of the Village with limited train links to Swansea and Shrewsbury.

As noted, the property enjoys a farmyard location and the farm buildings to the rear of the farmhouse are NOT included and are under separate ownership. These are agricultural buildings only.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

A substantial and traditional period farmhouse providing the perfect Family home with 4 bedroomed, 2 bathroomed accommodation with generous living areas with three useful reception rooms.

The current Vendors have retained many of its original character features and charm whilst also providing all everyday amenities. It benefits from oil fired central heating, double glazing and Satellite Broadband connection.

Externally it sits within its own grounds of approximately half an acre with lovely lawned gardens, orchard and mature hedge boundary.

There offers potential for further conversion (subject to consent) into the walled garden area which used to be part of the farmhouse and could offer itself as an annexe, sun room, etc.

In all a rare opportunity to purchase a stunning farmhouse in the breath taking Bannau Brycheiniog National Park.
