BELTON DUFFEY

THE BIRCHES HOUSE, 65 CASTLE RISING ROAD, SOUTH WOOTTON, NORFOLK, PE30 3JA

An attractive 5 bedroom detached character residence, situated in a sought after location with large established gardens, parking and garage.

DESCRIPTION

An attractive 5 bedroom detached character residence, situated in a sought after location with large established gardens, parking and garage.

The property is built of part solid walls and part cavity brick walls under a slate roof and is believed to have been commissioned by Queen Victoria for her chauffeur. The property retains many original features including pine flooring, period fireplaces, picture rails, quarry tiled floors and panelled internal doors.

The accommodation briefly comprises entrance hall, drawing room, dining room, morning room, kitchen, cloakroom and garden room (constructed in 2014) to the ground floor. On the first floor there are 5 bedrooms, a cloakroom and a shower room.

Outside, the property has large established private gardens and a larger than average garage.

PLEASE NOTE: Planning permission was granted for a single storey residence in March 2024 to the west side of no. 65 Castle Rising Road and is being sold separately with its own private driveway.

SITUATION

South Wootton is perhaps one of the most sought after residential areas in West Norfolk, being well known for it's schools (K.E.S catchment area), shops, recreational facilities and activities including the nearby golf course on Castle Rising Road and rugby fields at North Wootton, close to G.P. Surgery at North Wootton and with close access to King's Lynn with it's full range of shopping and banking facilities and main line train to London's King Cross. The North Norfolk Coast is a short distance drive and is an area of outstanding natural beauty. South Wootton is also close to the Royal Sandringham Estate where the public have access to walk over the wooded estate.
