Overlooking the central green is this well-maintained three-bedroom semi-detached home offered with NO CHAIN. Having been family occupied since the 1950s and set back from the road beyond a driveway this is the first time in generations this property has come available to purchase. Needing updating this property offers purchasers an abundance of scope to add value to the property. Its location is perfectly situated for access to amenities with essential shops within walking distance, it also sits within the catchment for quality schools and is perfectly suited for those seeking a first-time purchase. Over two floors it comprises in brief: an entrance hall with stair access, a generous sized lounge and a feature fireplace, a further dining room, and a fitted kitchen with access to the rear. Upstairs there are three bedrooms, a landing, and a bathroom. Viewers will not be disappointed by the space available in the rear gardens, which mainly laid to lawn and well stocked it makes for a very private outside space.
