Branscombe

The charming village of Branscombe is nestled on the UNESCO World Heritage site of the Jurassic Coast, between Sidmouth to the west and Lyme Regis to the east and within East Devon's Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The area is mostly owned by the National Trust and is set in a beautiful valley meandering down to the sea. The village is arranged in two settlements, one close to the famous Mason's Arms Inn and the other at the upper end, near the parish church. The wide expanse of pebbly beach is backed by magnificent cliffs with coastal paths to Beer and Sidmouth. The village offers two pubs, a primary school, a parish church, village hall and an old forge.

Surrounding Area and Schooling

The seaside town of Seaton is located 5 miles east which has an abundance of public gardens, popular attractions, and traffic free shopping with a range of shops, supermarkets and independent retailers. The market town of Honiton, with its main rail link to London Waterloo, is 9 miles inland and the Cathedral City of Exeter is about 25 miles further west. The M5 motorway is easily accessible at Exeter and Taunton.

Seaton Primary is Ofsted Outstanding, and is one of the few schools in East Devon which has a swimming pool; and the highly renowned and Ofsted Outstanding Colyton Grammar School is also in close proximity, nearby in Colyford.
