Bankside Cottage Sandway Road, Sandway, Kent. ME17 2NA.

£575,000 Freehold

Property Summary

"This is an incredibly charming cottage with a lot to offer. The addition of the park home on the land really gives any buyer great options" - Matthew Gilbert, Branch Manager.

Bankside Cottage is a pretty detached three bedroom cottage located in the Hamlet of Sandway just outside the village of Lenham.

The accommodation is arranged to include two separate reception rooms along with a well equipped kitchen. Upstairs there are three double bedrooms and a spacious bathroom with both a rolltop bath and large shower cubicle.

The gardens are a particular feature of the property and are predominantly found to one side of the cottage. The garden is laid mainly to lawn with raised beds and patio area that measures approximately 120ft in length with steps down to an additional area currently used as a further area of hardstanding, store and a park home. This area measures approximately 50ft. There is also a garage found to the other side of the cottage.

Added to this is the great addition of a three bedroom park home.

Well positioned in the hamlet of Sandway, Lenham is the closest village with its wide range of amenities and shop, schools and mainline railway station to London Victoria. There is also access to M20 found via junction 8 near Leeds Castle
