The Property

You enter the property through a covered storm porch through the main front door which is accessed through the garden. As you enter the property you are greeted with stairs leading to the first floor and doors either side leading into both the main reception room and the downstairs third bedroom which could equally be used as an ideal study or snug.

The sitting room equally provides double aspect views across your gardens, an inset log burner and a feature exposed brick wall adding to the warmth and charm of the property.

The kitchen is situated to the rear of the sitting room offering bespoke hand crafted kitchen units with a large island. A useful shower room sits from the kitchen servicing the third bedroom on the ground floor.

Stairs from the main hallway lead to the first-floor landing where you are met with a large double bedroom with feature fireplace, inbuilt wardrobe and views over the garden. Another double bedroom sits across the landing equally providing lovely views over the grounds. Both bedrooms on the first floor are serviced by a further three-piece family bathroom.
