GENERAL

Situated at the entrance to the small beach of Ferryside, an Estuary village situated on the River Towy which is well known for its fishing yacht club, junior school, further public houses etc and is situated between the main towns of Carmarthen and Llanelli. The area is quickly growing as a great holiday destination with Pembrey Country Park being 4 miles approximately with large sandy beach, woodland walks, dry ski slope and enclosed cycle track. Burry Port harbour is a further mile, the ancient town of Kidwelly is 2 miles approximately, well known for its picturesque castle and also being just over a mile from St Ismaels holiday camp with the village itself being the go-to destination for enjoyment etc. Carmarthen offers good shopping facilities with national and traditional retailers along with Llanelli having Trostre Shopping centre outside. Other places of interest include Ffos Las horse racing course being 6 miles approximately, 2 x great golfing destinations at Ashburnham and Machynys being just beyond Burry Port and before Llanelli town.
