Description

Dating back to 1814, lies this imposing Grade II listed Cotswold stone home originally a Methodist chapel before being converted in 1980's. Quindene retains many of its original features, including striking stone mullion windows and beautiful stained-glass windows in the main bedroom. Walking into this delightful home you are welcomed by a flagstone floor, with stairs to the first floor on your right, along with a cloakroom and access to the ground floor accommodation. The spacious sitting room, featuring full-height mullion windows that frame stunning front-aspect views. The dining room with parquet flooring and flows seamlessly into the kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units, incorporating both built-in and freestanding appliances and the sink perfectly positioned to overlook the rear garden. A side door provides convenient access to the exterior of the property. Upstairs, the first floor offers four generously sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. The main bedroom is a particular highlight, showcasing stunning arched stained-glass windows that flood the space with natural light. It also benefits from built-in wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. The loft space is partially boarded and benefits from power and lighting. A small workshop area has also been set up, providing a practical and versatile space.

Outside

At the front of the property, a gravel driveway provides parking for two cars. From the parking area, steps lead along the side of the property to the rear garden. The rear garden is arranged over two levels. The lower level offers a useful storage area and laid to patio, with steps and a pathway leading up to the top tier—a perfect spot to take in the stunning views. The rest of the garden is beautifully landscaped with mature plants, creating a charming and tranquil outdoor space.

Location

Randwick benefits from sports fields, a playground, a well-established primary school, village hall, a local pub, a parish church and nearby walks. There is a revived annual Medieval festival celebrated in the Spring called Randwick Wap. Nearby Cashes Green has couple of local convenience stores, hairdressers, two parks and takeaway food options. Stroud town benefits from an award winning weekly farmers market as well as a variety of local independent shops and stores, pubs serving locally supplied beers and ciders and plenty of cafes, bars and restaurants to eat and socialise as well as. The recently opened "Five Valleys" shopping centre is of particular note and is certainly worth a visit for a range of market stalls, food stalls and stores. The wider area has a range of shops and amenities, including supermarkets, a hospital, state and private schools, a leisure and sports centre and a main line railway station with inter city services travelling to London (Paddington). Cirencester (10 miles), Cheltenham (15 miles) and Swindon (25 miles) are all within comfortable driving distance.

Directions

Leave Stroud via the A419 Cainscross Road and take the second exit at the Cainscross roundabout. Turn right at the lights and proceed for approximately 1 mile through Cashes Green and Townsend. Pass the turning to Westrip and Ash Lane on your left and continue through the village anticipating the church on your right. Take the first turning after the church on the right into The Lane, continue along The Lane for around 300 meters and you will note a for sale sign on your left.

Services

The property is freehold. Gas central heating, mains electricity, water and drainage. The council tax band is E. We have checked the service and reception levels available locally through the OFCOM network checker and the broadband services available include standard and superfast broadband, and you are likely to have service from the main service providers (EE, Three, O2 and Vodafone)

Agents Note

Agents Note: Please be aware that there is a historic grave in the garden, dating back to 1854. Access from the northern boundary is available for relatives wishing to visit.
