GENERAL

An exceptional country property set on the fringes of the favoured Market town of Tregaron.

The property is well maintained and presented being brought to the market for the first time in over 30 years. Originally built for the first Station Master in Tregaron, the house is now a comfortable family home.

In recent years the property has benefited from a substantial refurbishment program including :-

- Re-roofing
- Re-wiring
- Re-plumbing and pressurised system
- Double glazing to a high standard throughout
- Re-pointing of all stonework
- Replacement of all gutters and bargeboards
- Additional insulation
- Lining of both chimneys

The property enjoys a wonderful rural setting bound by mature trees and enjoying a wonderful sheltered river valley position.

The property offers great family living accommodation and a useful range of outbuildings being suitable for holiday lets/tourism led/commercial uses or ideal working from home opportunities.

Set within some 6 acres or thereabouts, rarely do such properties come to the market being in such easy walking distance to local amenities.

An absolute gem along the Teifi Valley that must be viewed to be appreciated.
