Description

Nestled away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, on Wedmore's West End, this superbly presented modern home enjoys a private wrap-around garden overlooking woodland, with driveway parking and a large detached, stone-built studio.

The spacious hallway features wooden parquet flooring which continues throughout the downstairs living space. A large peninsular provides space for extra seating and the spacious dining area leads out onto a paved sun terrace.

The sitting room features wall to wall bifold doors to the garden and frame the views of the woodland beyond. A woodburning stove and bespoke book shelves with in-built seating help to create a comfortable and relaxing space. A second reception room, currently used as a games room, provides a cosy and versatile additional living space.

A large, tiled boot room has been cleverly designed with muddy boots and pets in mind and features inbuilt, bespoke cabinetry, sink unit with shower hose and a heated bench for drying off. A separate utility room provides storage and space for white goods, a large storage cupboard and access to the rear garden. There is also a downstairs cloak room.

A glass panelled, oak staircase leads up to a bright and spacious galleried landing, from which there are four double bedrooms, two with en-suites, a single room currently used as an office and a family bathroom. The principal bedroom has an adjoining dressing room with a bank of fitted Howden's wardrobes and drawers. The ensuite features a wooden vanity unit with double sinks.

Bifold doors in the kitchen lead onto a pretty paved sun terrace overlooking the woodland beyond. The level lawned area wraps around the house and steps lead down to a decked area among the trees and shrubs, creating a private haven to relax amongst nature. The block paved driveway provides parking for several cars beyond which is a large stone-build studio currently used as a games room.
