PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This spacious two-bedroom purpose-built apartment is conveniently located just off Douglas Promenade on the beautiful Isle of Man. Situated in a prime location, the apartment offers impressive sea views, allowing residents to enjoy the scenery. The property has been priced competitively for the current market and offers a great opportunity for either first time buyers or investors.

The apartment, located on the second floor is well-designed and offers ample space for comfortable living. The open-plan layout creates a seamless flow between the living, dining, and kitchen areas, providing a spacious and airy feel. Large windows allow natural light to flood in, enhancing the bright and open atmosphere of the apartment.

Both bedrooms are generously sized, offering plenty of room for relaxation, one of which is currently being used as a home office.

One of the standout features of this apartment is the secure underground parking space, providing residents with convenient and safe parking for their vehicle. This eliminates the common hassle of finding parking in central Douglas.

To ensure comfort throughout the year, the apartment is equipped with efficient electric storage heaters. These not only contribute to a cosy atmosphere but also provide cost-effective heating option.
