Available early December, this charming one-bedroom, one-bathroom ground floor maisonette offers an ideal retirement living opportunity in a welcoming over 55's development. Exclusively for the over 55s, this maisonette is more than just a home—it's a lifestyle that embraces community, convenience, and comfort. Whether you are downsizing or looking for your perfect retirement residence, this delightful property is ready to welcome you into a friendly neighbourhood with like-minded residents.

Step inside to discover the well presented accomodation, commencing with a generous living room, flooded with natural light. Adjacent to the living room is a galley kitchen which provides space for freestanding appliances, with a washing machine included. A spacious double bedroom also benefits from ample natural light and can also include a large freestanding wardrobe. A large built in cupboard led from the hallway provides storage, and this is in addition to a small, shared storage shed.

Set within beautifully maintained communal gardens, this retirement community encourages a sense of companionship and offers plenty of outdoor space to enjoy fresh air and the changing seasons. Residents can also make use of the communal lounge, a fantastic social space to meet neighbours, join in community activities, or simply unwind with a good book in friendly surroundings. In addition, peace of mind are paramount at this development, with access to a 24-hour emergency care support system ensuring help is always at hand if needed. This feature provides additional comfort for residents and their families, reassuring everyone involved.

For those with vehicles, the property offers non-allocated parking onsite.
