HALLSANDS

Prospect House has a remarkable and romantic history originally built by two sisters who created it into a legendary hotel. In 2008 the main building was carefully restored along with new build homes all in keeping with the New England styling. There is a total of 16 charming properties, a mixture of 11 apartments and 5 new built houses. Beesands lies to the North and Start Point to the South. Leading down the South West coastal path nearby, a 2-minute walk will bring you to the unspoiled fishing village and beach of North Hallsands leading around to Beesands, home to the popular seafood restaurants; The Cricket Inn and Britannia @ The Beach, serving the best fresh local fish around! Heading in the opposite direction will bring you along the Start Bay Lighthouse coastal path and take you to beautiful hidden coves and eventually to East Prawle and East Portlemouth which is opposite Salcombe Harbour. The nearby market town of Kingsbridge also has an array of amenities.
