Living and Entertaining Spaces

To the heart of the home, the open-plan kitchen, dining and family room offers a faultless blend of style and practicality. The custom-made Chalon kitchen is the focal point with a fitted Aga, Miele appliances and feature island, complemented by walnut parquet flooring with underfloor heating. A number of French doors open directly out into the gardens, extending the living area outside.

The drawing room is a light-filled retreat, featuring a focal point open fireplace, bay window seat and French doors leading out to the south-facing formal gardens. The study has been adapted as a playroom, while an additional reception room, currently used as a studio, would suit reversion to a formal dining room. A generous utility room and cellar provide superb storage, with space for a large wine collection.
