Description

A delightful two bedroom terraced cottage situated in the sought after village of Cottered just opposite "The Bull" public house/restaurant. Set in an attractive row of cottages with many original features remaining.

The accommodation comprises of a cosy lounge with feature fireplace and log burner, to the rear a kitchen/diner. The kitchen has plenty of cupboard space with doors to the day room and stairs leading up to the first floor.

The day room is a small addition to the the property but offers a relaxing environment to sit and enjoy the view over the major gardens. There is also a downstairs cloakroom.

Upstairs are two bedrooms, the master benefiting from feature fireplace and sash windows.

The bathroom has a double shower, wash basin and W/C.

Internal viewing highly recommended!!
