Great Chesterford is a traditional English village shops, pubs, and a hotel all within walking distance. Many of its listed buildings sit on the River Cam and the village's history dates back to 100,000 BC. With good rail links, from Great Chesterford Station, you can be in the heart of London within 70 minutes or Cambridge in 15 minutes.

Saffron Walden is a delightful medieval town with a rich heritage of old buildings, including the magnificent Jacobian mansion Audley End House and Gardens and St Mary's Church, the largest and one of the most beautiful parish churches in Essex. Fine examples of elaborate moulded plasterwork (pargetting), can be seen on the Old Sun Inn (believed to have been the headquarters of Oliver Cromwell) and the houses in Castle Street and Bridge Street. Saffron Walden Museum is of particular interest and contains everything from mammoth tusks to mummies. In the grounds of the museum are the ruins of the castle keep which dates back to the 1130s or 40s.
