Description

On entering the property, you're invited into a welcoming good-sized living room, which flows seamlessly into a generous second reception/dining area—ideal for meals, remote work or relaxation. Beyond that sits a long galley-style kitchen that leads to a porch with side access, offering a private entrance to the rear garden and providing a doorway to the family bathroom tucked just off this space. Upstairs are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, with a third, smaller bedroom accessed directly from the second bedroom, making it ideal as a nursery, office or dressing room. Early viewings available—contact us to book a slot and make this your next home.
