Additional Information

About the Area:

Clifton village was voted Bedfordshire Village of the Year in 2003, 2005 and 2009. It is today largely residential, but in the past, it was a centre for straw plaiting. Facilities in Clifton include a lower school, butcher, Post Office/village store and two public houses (The Golden Lion and The Admiral). There is also an Indian restaurant, garage, petrol station and a hairdresser. There is a small group of businesses located in converted farm buildings at Clifton Bury farm. At the northern edge of the village is Clifton Cricket Club. Football is played at the Recreation Ground. The Community Centre, with its large car park, is located at the Northern end of the Recreation Ground. All Saints' Church Hall is situated in Stanford Lane. There is also a duckpond in the centre of the village. The village is five minutes' drive from a train station with easy access to London and Peterborough
