Summary

This charming, detached house is desirably located in the picturesque coastal village of Pittenweem, near the town of Anstruther. It is nestled within enclosed gardens, south-facing at the rear, and provides ample private parking with a driveway and garage. The spacious and flexible interiors feature two reception rooms—one connected to a light-filled kitchen that adjoins a south-facing conservatory. Additionally, there are three double bedrooms, plentiful storage, a bathroom, a utility room, and a quiet study for home working. Now requiring some modernisation, the property allows the purchaser to create a home perfectly suited to their style and requirements. Extras: All fitted floor and window coverings, and light fittings will be included in the sale.
