Situation

This beach hut occupies a particularly sought after position, on beach level with glorious southerly views towards The Needles and the Isle of Wight. Milford on Sea is a very well regarded coastal village with a wide variety of excellent restaurants, bars and pubs. The beach there is ideal for sunbathing and swimming with excellent coastal and Forest walks across the surrounding countryside. The nearby market town of Lymington offers a wider range of shops and restaurants as well as excellent sailing facilities at its marinas.

Directions

Milford on Sea has several cliff top car parks and coastal pathways to enjoy the stunning beaches and views across Christchurch Bay. This beach hut is positioned close to Milford on Sea's westernmost car park, opposite Whitby Road, where there is a snack kiosk and public toilets. Go to the steps down to the beach just next to the food kiosk. Down the two sets of steps onto the shingle beach and the beach hut is the fourth on the right hand side.
