Description

An idyllic rural estate of over 17 acres with breathtaking panoramic views from the Mendip Hills to Glastonbury Tor. This substantial, level plot is home to a four-bedroom farmhouse and numerous versatile outbuildings including stables, large open-sided Dutch barns and an insulated garden room with hydrotherapy/spa/resistance pool.

The gravel drive sweeps past a decked and covered porch adjoining the farmhouse, to an extensive hard-standing area lined with outbuildings which include numerous stone-built workshop/storage sheds, a large stable/garage block, two open-sided Dutch barns and a chicken shed. The largest barn contains a tack room, loose boxes and a paved turn-out area and has a substantial attached and fenced dog run. The other barn is accessed via a five-bar gate which forms the boundary between the driveway and the adjoining land. Next to the farmhouse, a pretty, lawned garden features a number of apple trees and shrubs and is home to a modern garden room housing the hydrotherapy spa resistance pool with bi-fold doors opening out onto a decked area, perfect for catching the evening sun. A footpath runs alongside the bank of the river for which the property has sole fishing rights.

The 1930s farmhouse is warm and welcoming. The traditional farmhouse kitchen comes complete with a Rayburn cooker and hand-made solid wood larder cupboard and base units topped with granite worktops with a Belfast sink. There is ample room for a dining table and space for white goods. The adjoining utility room provides further integrated storage, space for appliances and access to the garden via a stable door and there is a handy adjoining shower room. A spacious dining room flows from the kitchen and features a full-length window through which far-reaching countryside views can be enjoyed. The open-plan living space continues into the dual-aspect sitting room area, where a log-burning stove provides the perfect space to curl up and relax whilst admiring the lovely views. Beyond the sitting room, the entrance hall leads to a cosy library, with its impressive wall-to-wall built-in shelving and cabinets.

Upstairs, there are four double bedrooms, all benefiting from fabulous views. A window at the top of the stairs frames views across to Glastonbury and creates a light and spacious feel on the landing. The principal bedroom comes with a generous ensuite with a sleek modern suite and walk in shower. The family bathroom is spacious and features a lovely free-standing roll-top bath.
