DESCRIPTION

An elegant Georgian style house in the heart of the beautiful city of Wells, just moments from Wells Cathedral, Bishop's Palace and bustling High Street. The property was built in 2002 and has an array of Georgian style features including stone faced façade, Mansard roof, high ceilings and sash windows. Presented in immaculate condition, the house is arranged over three floors and benefits from a dual aspect kitchen dining room, generous sitting room, four double bedrooms, two bathrooms, a rear courtyard garden and a dedicated parking space. Offered to the market with NO ONWARD CHAIN.

Upon entering is a hallway with oak plank floor, high ceiling with coving and glazed door to the rear courtyard garden. The hallway widens to reveal a staircase to the upper floors and a cloakroom with WC, vanity wash hand basin and raised cupboard with space for a tumble dryer. The kitchen/dining room, with dual aspect, is a good size and features a range of cabinets with cream Shaker style doors and drawers topped with dark wood effect worktops. Within the kitchen is a deep cupboard with space and plumbing for a washing machine, a cupboard housing the 'Worcester' boiler, integrated dishwasher, integrated 'Belling' oven and gas hob, 1 1/2 bowl stainless steel sink and space for a fridge freezer. To the front is a sash window with bespoke shutters and space for a dining table to seat six to eight people comfortably. Across the hall is the impressive sitting room with two sash windows to the front, again with bespoke shutters, along with oak plank floor, cast iron fireplace, wall lights, a built-in glazed cupboard to one of the alcoves and a further built-in cupboard, beneath the stairs and ideal for day-to-day storage. This versatile room could also be used as a formal dining room, if desired, and one of the first floor bedrooms would make a delightful sitting room.

Stairs lead up to the bright and airy first floor landing with a window overlooking the courtyard garden and offering glimpses, through the trees, of nearby Wells Cathedral. On this floor are two generous double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The first of the bedrooms, currently presented as a twin bedroom, has two windows to the front, half shutters, coved ceiling and a useful built-in wardrobe with shelves and hanging space. The second bedroom, again with two sash windows to the front, features a coved ceiling, shutters and a wall of fitted wardrobes. The family bathroom, with built-in linen cupboard, comprises; a bath with glazed screen and shower above, WC, vanity wash basin with additional storage, illuminated mirror and wall heater.

From the landing stairs rise to the second floor with two further double bedrooms and a bathroom. The first of the two bedrooms, on this level, is a generous double with high, part vaulted ceilings and two dormer windows to the front. Within the bedroom, neatly tucked into the alcove, is a large built-in cupboard with double doors, deep shelving and shelving above. A built-in wardrobe,
