THE PROPERTY

Situated in a pleasant cul-de-sac close to Westbourne, this beautifully presented home offers an abundance of features alongside modern comforts. Approached via its own private entrance, the well proportioned and tasteful interior boasts an open-plan living/dining/kitchen flooded with natural light thanks to the two skylight windows as well as direct access to the garden. The master bedroom includes a dressing area and en-suite, while the impressive second bedroom features a large bay window, there is also a stunning bathroom with claw foot bath and stylish vanity unit and basin. A particular highlight of the property is the private and well established landscaped garden, thoughtfully designed with patio, multiple seating areas, interspersed planting, and a variety of spaces to enjoy and entertain. Further benefits include a converted garage with power and lighting – ideal as a home office, gym, or studio – plus a storage shed, and an allocated parking space to the front of the property. This fabulous home perfectly combines charm, style, and practicality, making it an excellent opportunity not to be missed.

The property enjoys a pleasant situation within this cul-de-sac setting ideally positioned to take advantage of all the area has to offer including a pathway which leads in to the heart of Westbourne. Nearby you can enjoy a stroll through the Bournemouth Pleasure Gardens which take you to the main town centre whereas Westbourne, renowned for its coffee bar scene, has a more laid back vibe and offers an eclectic mix of independent shops and restaurants as well as the usual high street names such as Marks and Spencer food hall. For beach lovers, miles upon miles of sandy shores with promenade stretch from the famous Sandbanks and on to trendy Southbourne and beyond.
