

Located in the charming village of Datchet, this well-presented three-bedroom detached home offers spacious living in a desirable setting. With easy access to Eton Playing Fields, Herschel Park, and Upton Park, this property is ideal for those who enjoy outdoor spaces while still benefiting from excellent transport links and local amenities.

The home features two generous reception rooms, providing versatile living space perfect for entertaining, family gatherings, or a home office. The stylish galley-style kitchen is well-appointed, offering both functionality and charm. Upstairs, three double bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, all benefiting from built wardrobes and served by a well-maintained family bathroom.

Outside, the property boasts an attractive south westerly facing garden, ideal for relaxing or dining al fresco, while off-street parking and a useful garage adds further convenience.
