The Property

Thought to have been built circa 1890, with later extensions in the late 1990's, the property is now available for the first time in 27 years and offers generous proportions and is set conveniently within the village of Brockenhurst. The approach from Sway Road leads onto a large expanse of driveway offering off street parking and access to both sides of the property and to the detached garage at the rear.

A recessed porch provides access into the main elegant hallway with attractive herringbone wooden flooring, ornate coving, doors to the ground floor accommodation, with panelled stairs leading up to the first floor.

A generous sitting room is set to the right hand side which offers dual aspects with a large box bay window with front aspects and plantation shutters. A feature fireplace with grate, granite hearth and marble surround provides a focal point of the room. A door leads through to an original garden room set to the side of the house with windows to the surrounds, glazed roofing and quarry tiled flooring with doors leading out from here to the garden.

The cosy drawing room is set across the hallway with wood burner inset with tiled hearth and large windows overlooking the front, again with plantation shutters and wooden flooring. This room could be used as a formal dining alternatively.

A large utility room is set at the rear of the hall making a good boot room with space and plumbing for appliances, storage cupboards with wooden worksurfaces and inset butler sink, a wall mounted gas boiler and door leading out to the rear garden. A WC is set off this area.

The triple aspect family kitchen/breakfast room is set at the rear of the property with an attractive maple in-frame kitchen with complimentary granite worksurfaces and upstands with inset ceramic double sink unit. The kitchen offers extensive storage units set to base and eye level, with pan drawers, open plate racks and complimented with a peninsular island. Appliances include an integrated dishwasher, fridge freezer, double oven with induction hob. There is space for table and chairs at one side with side aspects windows and a door leads into a modern conservatory with a glazed roof, quarry tiled floor and doors leading out to the garden, making another lovely seating area overlooking the garden.

Grounds & Gardens

The grounds are a real feature of the property which is set back from the road and screened with mature hedging and trees.

A fivebar gate provides access onto the gravelled drive for off street parking, with planted flower beds and shrubs to the boundaries.
