SITUATION

Situated on a popular cul-de-sac on the northern outskirts of Sevenoaks Town, on the edge of the village of Seal. The property is close to a footpath which provides direct access to Seal Primary School. Seal offers local shops, a cafe and public house, while Sevenoaks High Street is about two miles and offers varied shopping facilities, a leisure centre, library and restaurants. Historic Knole House with its 1,000 acre deer park is easily reached. There are many popular schools in the area, both in the state and private sector. Sevenoaks station is approximately a 10 minute drive, and has direct services to London Bridge in as little as 22 minutes. Bat and Ball station is approximately a mile away, with direct services to London Blackfriars, as well as Sevenoaks and Otford in 4 minutes.

DIRECTIONS

From Sevenoaks High Street proceed out of the town in a northerly direction, passing through the Pembroke Road traffic lights and bearing right into Seal Hollow Road. Proceed to the traffic lights on the A25. Turn right and proceed towards the village of Seal. Ash Platt Road, leading to Highlands Park, is the first turning reached on the left hand side. Number 13 is at the end of Highlands Park, where the road curves up to the right, opposite the area of lawn and trees.

DRIVEWAY

There is available parking on the driveway for at least three vehicles.
