ROOM DESCRIPTIONS

About

Rockside Hall is a Grade II listed building, dating back to 1862 and having been restored to its former glory in 2004, the Hall offers a wealth of characterful charm with many periodic features within the grounds. Once famed for its hydro & spa treatments. Nestled in the Derbyshire Dales and sitting just on the edge of the Peak District National Park you have a wealth of things to do nearby. It is part of a safe, respectable and peaceful community that you'll instantly feel at home in. From the property there are breath-taking views across Matlock town, down the Derwent Valley and across to Riber Castle. The views must be some of the best Matlock has to offer.
