The Property

The house is set well back from this quiet leafy lane and is approached over a long private drive which leads to a turning and parking area adjacent to the house and garage. The interior has been significantly enhanced in recent years and now provides beautifully presented accommodation over two floors

There is a large enclosed glazed porch which leads to the front door. The entrance hall is a bright, open space with stairs rising to the first floor and doors to the sitting room and kitchen / breakfast room.

The sitting room runs the full length of the house and features a gas flame-effect fire place and large sliding doors opening onto the garden. The kitchen / breakfast room also overlooks the garden and has a range of contemporary fitted units with integrated appliances as well as room for a breakfast table and a back door to the garden. Reached via the kitchen is the dining room which overlooks the front garden.

Upstairs there is a central landing which provides access to the four double bedrooms all of which enjoy delightful views either over the garden or open fields to the front of the property. Three of the bedrooms have extensive built in wardrobes and there is also a family bathroom and separate wc.

Planning Permission

There is currently planning permission in place for an incoming purchaser to replace the existing house with a superb 3,500 square foot home complete with garage and separate office / gym with wc. The current owners have carried out significant research into building the proposed house and would be open to completing the property on behalf of the new purchasers. Details of the planning permission are available from the agent.

Both Lymington and Brockenhurst afford fine schooling (both state and private) with the latter having a tertiary college.

Grounds & Gardens

There is a large turning and parking area to the front of the house providing parking space for several cars. Adjoining the house is a single garage with store room and covered access.

The gardens lie predominantly to the rear of the house and are extremely generous extending to approximately 0.41 acres in total. There is a superb wooden entertaining outbuilding complete with bar area offering versatile year-round space for hosting. The rear gardens are level and mostly laid to lawn with mature planting at the boundaries and zipwire.

The Situation

This delightfully positioned house sits at the end of a private drive facing unspoilt open countryside off a charming tree-lined road on the highly sought after south side of Lymington. The house perfectly combines a peaceful rural outlook with the convenience of proximity to the centre of Lymington as well as its numerous sailing and recreational facilities. The New Forest lies just to the north with unrivalled open spaces providing superb walking, riding and cycling. Lymington's attractive coastline lies just to the south with glorious walks along the sea wall with far reaching views of The Solent and Isle of Wight.

Directions

From our offices in Lymington turn left opposite the church into Church Lane. As the road forks, take the right hand fork into Broad Lane. At the T-Junction, turn right on All Saints Road. Take the next left into Viney Road and the drive to the house will be found after about 175 yards on the right hand side.
