Grounds & Gardens

Outside, the property is set in approximately 3.4 acres, 3.1 acres of which is well drained paddock land. The paddock has three access points and has a water supply to one trough. This land would be perfect for grazing land and is regularly put to hay in the summer.

You approach the property through attractive wrought iron gates and a large gravelled driveway where there is ample parking. An oversized thatched garage with storage above is positioned to the front of the property with an electric up and over door and adjoining wood shed.

The front garden is beautifully landscaped with feature Victorian style lamps and a small paved area to enjoy the late afternoon sun and sunsets which set over the paddock. The back garden is far reaching and is mainly laid to lawn with a terraced area, perfect for alfresco dining. The gardens are fenced with sparse hedging in order for you to have extensive views over your paddock and land beyond.
