DESCRIPTION

The property lies within a quiet area, close to the fields on the southern edge of the town, yet within walking distance of a bus route, traditional corner shop and the town's main facilities.

Located to the front a storm porch and double glazed door leads into the central entrance hall, which incorporates the staircase rising to the first floor and doors to principal rooms. The good sized sitting room with dual aspect windows and has a fitted gas fire. A door leads into the kitchen which is fitted with a range of base, drawer and wall units incorporating a single drainer sink unit and work surfaces. There are gas and electric cooker points, plumbing for washing machine and space for free standing fridge / freezer. An archway leads into the dining room which has a useful understairs storage cupboard and a further door to the entrance hall.

On the first floor, the split landing gives access to the three bedrooms – two doubles and a good sized single. The double bedroom to the rear has two built in cupboards, one housing the gas combi boiler providing the radiator heating and hot water. There is a separate cloakroom with low level wc and separate bathroom with panel enclosed bath and pedestal wash hand basin. These two rooms could be reconfigured into a spacious bathroom.

The property benefits from a gas radiator heating system and double glazing.

OUTSIDE

The front garden is fully enclosed with a wooden pedestrian gate and a path giving access to the double glazed front entrance door. The large rear garden has in the past been used for vegetable production. There is an outside tap, and a shared pedestrian path beyond the boundary, which leads to the end and front of the terrace. The parking at the front of the property is not allocated nor assigned to the property.
