Situation

Rose Cottage, 24 Fortescue Street is situated in the Somerset village of Norton St Philip. The village benefits from a primary school, St Philip and St James Church of England church, 2 pubs, The Fleur de Lys and The George, claimed to be one of the oldest taverns in the country and a Co-op convenience store with Post Office (located within the development). The village also enjoys a cricket pitch with popular team, which adds to the excellent community feel.

The village is also well positioned for access to surrounding towns, which include Bradford on Avon (approx. 6 miles) and Frome (approx. 7 miles). Amenities including retail outlets, pubs and restaurants, cinema and sporting facilities can be found within these towns along with rail links. Buses from the village run regularly to both Bath and Frome.

The World Heritage City of Bath (approx. 7 miles) provides a complete range of retail outlets together with many other amenities to include The Theatre Royal, a number of fine restaurants and excellent sporting facilities. There is also a mainline railway station providing direct access to London Paddington, Bristol and south Wales.

The M4 motorway junction 18 is approximately 17 miles and junction 17 is approximately 20miles. Access to the M3 via the A303 is also easily reached.

Description

Rose Cottage is a spacious and beautifully presented double fronted property, built to an extremely high standard throughout, including high ceilings, Siemens appliances and luxury bathrooms.

Upon entering, the spacious and light entrance hall gives access to the sitting room with a handsome woodburning stove and delightful French doors opening onto the private terrace. The kitchen/dining/family room offers a comfortable and light space for entertaining with bespoke kitchen units and granite worktops, walk-in larder ideal for the keen cook. The ground floor accommodation is completed with a handy utility room and a cloakroom.

The staircase with oak spindles and handrail leads up the first floor with the main bedroom which has dual aspect windows, spacious dressing area and luxury en suite. There are 3 further double bedrooms, 2 having bespoke fitted wardrobes, and a luxury family bathroom.

Externally the property benefits from a charming, easily maintained, terraced garden with patio area ideal for al fresco dining. Steps lead up to a further paved area bordered by mature shrubs and perennial planting.

Steps rise to the annexe/studio comprising a vaulted room with front aspect windows and a shower room. This area is suitable for a variety of uses including a home office, therapy room or ancillary accommodation and is positioned above the double garage which has an electrically operated door and paved area in front providing off street parking for 2 vehicles.
