PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

HOUSE FOX PRESENTS ... This lovely semi-detached bungalow is set in a quiet, very attractive and well-kept development of similar bungalows for the over 60s and offers 2 good sized bedrooms, living room with doors to the rear garden, electric heating and residents parking to the front. The property is best accessed via the first entrance on the left along Locksbrook Road from Townshend Road. The entrance and hallway leads to a generous living room with patio doors to the well kept rear garden. The pleasant kitchen offers a range of wall and base units with worktops over, built in electric oven, and spaces for a washing machine and fridge-freezer as well as an inset stainless-steel sink/drainer. The two bedrooms are of a good size, one to the rear with a built-in wardrobe and an airing cupboard, and one to the front currently configured as a dining room. The bathroom is well appointed with a white suite of WC and basin and large walk-in shower. Outside to the rear is a manageable garden with patio area for seating or dining, a lawn area and borders and a timber garden shed. The property is freehold with a range of communal services. The impressive green landscaping around the bungalows is particularly attractive and reflects the quality of the services and residents parking is in a non-allocated basis to the front.
