In Warwickshire, south of Birmingham, is Henley-in-Arden, a picturesque place to visit. Henley-in-Arden is best known for its variety of historic buildings. Some of these buildings date back to medieval times. The Warwickshire town has a wide variety of preserved architectural styles, so much so that they class the high street as a conservation area. In the High Street you will find a variety of little shops, cafes, convenience stores, deli, public houses, and many restaurants to choose from, and a local doctor's surgery a short walk away. There are beautiful walks in and around Henley and close enough to bigger towns for even more choices of shops and eating places.
