Introduction

This sale offers a rare opportunity to purchase a ring fenced upland farm located within the Lake District National Park which includes a Grade II listed three bedroom farmhouse, a Grade II listed four bedroom cottage, a range of traditional and modern farm buildings together with 127.94 acres (51.77 hectares) or thereabouts of a mix of mowing and grazing land and woodland.

This property is offered for sale in up to four Lots by Private Treaty.

Location

Blakehills Farm is located approximately 1 mile off the A66 on the road running along the Mungrisdale Valley. The farm is located approximately 11 miles to the west of Penrith and 8 miles to the east of the Lake District town of Keswick.

Directions

Leave the M6 motorway at Junction 40 and head westbound on the A66 for approximately 9 miles until reaching the junction signposted Mungrisdale to the right. Take this turning and proceed for approximately 1 mile and Blakehills Farm is located on the left hand side of the road. Access is gained via a stone access track.

The location of the property is shown on the plans within these particulars and will be identified by way of PFK sale boards.

Local Amenities

Blakehills Farm has good access to the A66 trans-Pennine route with easy access to the market towns of Penrith and Keswick and is ideally situated for the surrounding Lake District. Penrith benefits from the amenities one would expect from a market town together with access to the M6 motorway, a railway station on the West Coast mainline and a livestock auction market.

Lot 1 - Blakehills Farmhouse, farm buildings, approximately 49.98 acres (20.23 hectares) of agricultural land and common rights

The Farmhouse

The Grade II listed farmhouse sits along the farm driveway and is located directly adjacent to the farm steading.

The property is stone built under a slate roof and the accommodation comprises the following:

Ground Floor:

Front door leading into hallway.

Off the hallway is a sitting room (14'7" x 11'11" (4.45m x 3.62m)) with a fireplace, wooden sash windows, wooden beams, wood panelling and a built-in corner cupboard.

On the opposite side of the hallway is a living room (15'5" x 12'8" (4.71m x 3.87m)) with a fireplace housing an open fire, night storage heaters, wooden sash windows to the front and rear elevation of the room and wooden beams.

Accessed off the Sitting room is the kitchen (16'4" x 10'6" (4.98m x 3.21m)) with wall and base units, oil fired aga, sink and single drainer, linoleum floor and wooden ceiling beams.

A door leads from the kitchen into a wooden framed double glazed garden room (14'6" x 11'11" (4.43m x 3.64m)) with a tiled floor and a door leading out into the rear garden. This room enjoys views of the adjacent farmland and views towards Souter Fell.

The property enjoys a small front garden with lawned area and flower beds. The lawned back garden can either be accessed through the Garden Room or from the adjacent farmyard.

Farm Buildings:

Attached to the southern elevation of the farmhouse is a stone under slate roof barn with various small storage areas and outdoor steps leading up to the loft area which comprises a storage area for the house.

On the opposite side of the farmyard are the following:

Stone under slate roof barn with two monopitch lean-tos built in breeze block under corrugated tin sheet roofs.

A lofted stone under slate roof building.

A stone built byre under a slate roof with an earth floor.

A concrete block lean-to under fibre cement sheet roof utilised as a garage building and former sheep pens.

Monopitch breeze block building under fibre cement sheet roof used for storage.

A four bay modern portal frame building, with concrete panel walls, air vent sheeting above, fibre cement sheet roof with a concrete floor which is partially fitted out with cubicles. This building has a large underground slurry storage tank.

Adjacent to this is a large area of concrete which has been utilised for fodder storage.

The Land:

The land included within Lot 1 extends to approximately 49.98 acres (20.23 hectares) or thereabouts being a mix of mowing and grazing land which in the main is southerly facing and undulating in nature.

The land lies within a ring fence and can all be easily accessed from the farm steading and has the benefit of a hard stone track leading from the farm steading westwards to the furthest parcels.

On the most westerly boundary of this land is a large stone under slate roofed field barn which enjoys roadside access. This Lot benefits from common grazing rights on Mungrisdale Common – CL293 – please see common rights section for full details.

The land lies within the Severely Disadvantaged Area and is classified as Grade 4 under the former MAFF land classification system and the land lies between 190 metres and 200 metres above mean sea level.

The boundaries are a mix of post and wire fences and drystone walls which are generally in good condition throughout.

General Remarks, Reservations & Stipulations

Method of Sale

The property is offered for sale by Private Treaty in up to 4 Lots.

The Vendors and sole selling Agents reserve the right to alter or divide the property or to withdraw or exclude any of the property at any time.

The Vendors reserve the right to vary any of the terms and conditions of sale or to change the method of sale without notice. For this reason, we recommend likely Purchasers should register their interest with the Agents as soon as possible in order that they may be kept abreast of any changes to the marketing of the land.

Tenure

The property is offered for sale freehold with vacant possession upon the date of completion.

Access

Blakehills Farm enjoys direct access from the public highway, with Lots 3 & 4 also benefitting from direct roadside access.

Blakehills Cottage enjoys a right of access over the entrance drive to the farm, and is responsible for 1/6th of the cost of maintenance of the access drive.

Wayleaves, Easements, Covenants & Rights of Way

The property is sold subject to all rights including rights of way, whether public or private, light, support, drainage, water and electricity supplies and other rights and obligations and easements, quasi easements and restrictive covenants and all existing and proposed wayleaves for masts, pylons, stays, cables, drains, and water, gas and other pipes, whether or not referred to in these particulars.

Any Purchasers will be deemed to have satisfied themselves as to the nature of such restrictions and are advised to contact the Vendors' Solicitors for details:

Cartmell Shepherd Solicitors, Montgomery Way, Carlisle, Cumbria, CA1 2RW
Tel: 01228 514077
Email: katherine.pretswell-walker@cartmells.co.uk
Ms Katherine Pretswell - Walker acting.

It should be noted that there are overhead lines across the property together with a water pipe.

There are also various public footpaths running across the property. Please see the location plan for the routes.

Blakehills Farmhouse and Cottage are Grade II listed.

Blakehills Cottage enjoys a right of access over the length of the access track from the public highway along the route shaded light green.

Sporting & Mineral Rights

The sporting and mineral rights are included in the sale insofar as they are owned by the Vendors, save for all the parcels within Lot 4 except parcel 257, which are former copyhold of the Manor of Greystoke and therefore the mines and minerals are excepted.

Common Rights

Blakehills benefits from the right to graze 240 ewes and followers (to include shearlings) and 60 gimmer hogs on Mungrisdale common – CL293.

If the farm is sold in Lots, the common rights are attributable to each Lot in the following numbers:

Lot 1 – 93.23 ewes and 23.31 hogs

Lot 2 – 0.34 ewes and 0.08 hogs

Lot 3 – 41.96 ewes and 10.49 hogs

Lot 4 – 104.47 ewes and 26.12 hogs

These figures are provisional and subject to confirmation by the Commons Authority at Cumbria County Council.

It should be noted that these rights have not been exercised in recent years and any prospective Purchaser should make their own enquiries in regard to the position with regard to exercising these rights.
