Nestled in the heart of the picturesque village of Pirton, this charming three-bedroom end of terrace property is a rare gem waiting to be discovered. Offering a perfect blend of modern comfort and traditional charm, this property presents an exceptional opportunity for those seeking a cozy and inviting home in a desirable location.

This home offers wonderfully light and balanced accommodation throughout arranged evenly over two floors. The accommodation commences with the entrance hallway that flows through offering a downstairs cloakroom, stairs rising to the first floor accommodation and access to the main living areas. To the front of the property is the living room with a feature log burner and large picture window. At the rear of the property and the hub of the house is the wonderful open plan kitchen/family area. This is a wonderful light room with double doors leading out to the rear garden. The stylish kitchen offers a range of built in units with worksurfaces over and an inset butler sink. There is a breakfast bar and ample space for dining table and chairs as well as a sofa. This floor is then completed with the downstairs bathroom. Upstairs there are three bedrooms and a three piece family bathroom suite.

The property resides on a lovely plot of approximately 0.15 acres with a wonderful rear garden bordered by both fencing and mature trees. There is a patio area leading out from the rear of the house which flows onto the lawn area. There is a brick built outbuilding and timber shed. The front garden is mainly laid to lawn with gravel areas and a driveway providing ample off road parking.

Pirton is a small village and civil parish three miles north-east of Hitchin in Hertfordshire, England. The church, rebuilt in 1877, but with the remains of its 12th-century tower, is built within the bailey of a former castle. Pirton Grange, which was remodelled in the 18th century, is in the north of the parish, and is a particularly interesting, moated Elizabethan house with a timber framed gatehouse. Hammonds Farm and Rectory Farm, with its tithe barn, are also Elizabethan.
