Description

If you are looking for family home or a first time buy and within walking distance to Walderslade Village then look no further. When entering you are welcomed to a light and airy entrance hall leading through to the modern fitted kitchen. Offering a variety of fitted units, integrated double oven, hob, dishwasher and stone/resin composite worksurfaces. Continuing through you come to a good size lounge overlooking the terrace to the front and separate dining room. Moving upstairs to the first floor you will find three good size bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally the property sits on a good sized elevated plot with garage to the front. To the rear this generous plot continues giving great space to reflect on the natural habitat that surrounds with a variety of trees and shrubs. Backing onto woodlands, this is an area that is great space for children to explore. For further details please call the Greyfox sales team today!!
