2/ STONE HOUSE, NEALHOUSE, CARLISLE

This beautifully presented detached sandstone property dates back to 1850 and is situated in a picturesque rural location to the west of Carlisle. Perfectly situated in a quiet courtyard, you really feel like you could be in the middle of nowhere but there are plenty of day to day amenities within close proximity. The spacious property is bursting with character, double glazed and oil central heated throughout and comprises of spacious entrance hall with cloakroom, lounge with a stunning fireplace housing a multi fuel stove, sitting room with feature sandstone wall housing a second log burner, country style dining kitchen with Range style cooker, integrated appliances, granite worksurfaces and a Belfast sink, separate utility room and beautiful conservatory with exposed sandstone wall and French doors to the patio. To the first floor there are two en-suite double bedrooms, a double bedroom with separate dressing area and a fourth double bedroom with views over the countryside. The spacious landing has ample room for a study area and there is a generous four piece family bathroom with free standing roll top bath. Ample parking to the front of the property for several vehicles alongwith a lawned garden which wraps around the side with well established trees and plants in raised flower beds and the ornamental garden pond is a stunning feature. To the rear of the conservatory is a paved patio seating area. Situated in catchment area for popular schools including St Michaels and Caldew of Dalston and Nelson Thomlinson of Wigton. With easy access to West Cumbria and the western bypass and in close proximity to the villages of Dalston and Thursby, the property would make an ideal family home and would suit those looking for a rural lifestyle with the benefit of amenities close at hand.
