Outside

Outside, the property is set within a generous corner plot, featuring a sizable driveway providing extensive off-road parking, leading to a detached garage.

The meticulously landscaped main garden, boasting a sunny westerly aspect, offers a tranquil retreat, complete with a spacious patio area transitioning seamlessly onto a sizeable lawn area bordered by established flower and shrub beds.

Additional amenities include a detached garden shed and a detached garage featuring a utility area with plumbing and space for a washing machine and tumble dryer.

The Situation

Barton on Sea is a quiet residential area in a stunning coastal setting with beach and clifftop views across Christchurch Bay, sweeping from Hurst Castle to Hengistbury Head. The sand and shingle beach is popular with dog walkers while the cliff top attracts paragliders.

Barton has a history dating back to Anglo Saxon times, however it developed relatively recently. Apart from a row of old coastguard cottages, it mostly comprises avenues and closes of mid-century and modern family homes, chalets, imaginative new builds and substantial houses on leafy Barton Common Road.

Barton has been discovered by young families, attracted by the relaxed outdoorsy lifestyle, with coast on one side and New Forest on the other, plus good state and independent schools; these include Durlston Court and Ballard School, both rated 'excellent'.

Facilities include clifftop restaurants and Barton on Sea Golf Club, a 27-hole clifftop course. Barton also benefits from the extensive amenities of neighbouring New Milton. Among these are a mainline station with train services to London in around two hours, arts centre, selection of shops ranging from an M&S food store to a traditional department store and weekly market.

Situated in the small clifftop village of Barton on Sea, less than two miles from Christchurch Town Centre
