An extremely spacious first-floor apartment comprising of three bedrooms and two bathrooms, set within the highly desirable Maltings. Early viewing is strongly recommended.

This is an excellent opportunity to purchase and improve on this first-floor apartment located within this historic building, which began its life as the well-known Fordham's Brewery in the early 1900s. Over the years, the building has served a variety of purposes, including housing R-White's lemonade and soft drinks store in 1964, before being thoughtfully converted into 22 apartments in 1990. Ideally situated in the heart of Ashwell, the property is within walking distance of local amenities.

The apartment is accessed via a communal entrance hall with stairs and a lift to the first floor, leading to the property's own private entrance hall. Internally, the accommodation offers a generous open-plan living room and kitchen/diner, featuring a well-proportioned lounge enjoying countryside views to the front, alongside a good-sized kitchen area with space for a dining table.

The property further benefits from three spacious double bedrooms. Two bedrooms are located on the main floor, while the principal bedroom is complemented by an en-suite bathroom, complete with a full-sized bath, WC, and wash hand basin. In addition, there is a second bathroom serving the remaining bedrooms, comprising a walk-in shower, WC, and wash hand basin. The third bedroom is located on the top floor and offers a spacious and versatile area, ideal as a bedroom, home office, or hobby room.

While the apartment is presented in good condition throughout, it would benefit from some modernization, offering the new owner an excellent opportunity to personalize the space and add value. The development also benefits from well-maintained communal gardens and generous residents' parking. Early viewing is highly recommended to avoid disappointment.
