Situated on a superb corner plot, overlooking the local cricket club is this substantial detached property covering 1792sqft of spacious accommodation. Requiring modernization this extensive home offers endless opportunities, subject to planning.

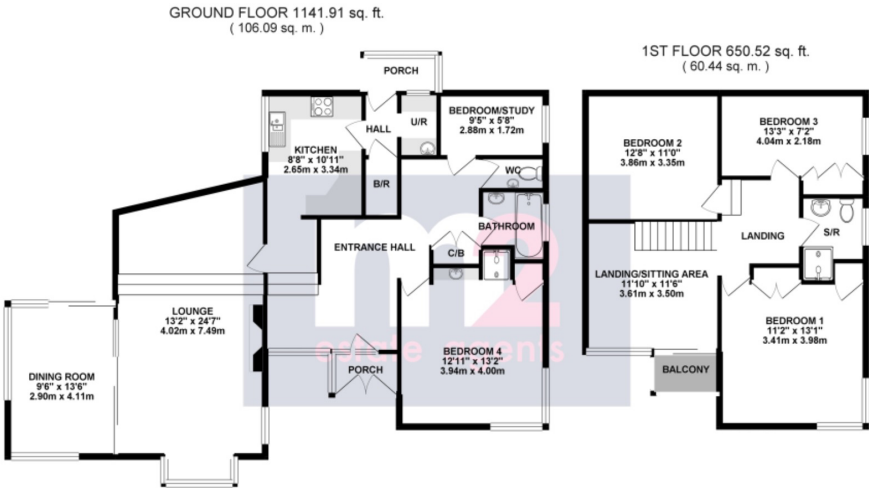

Internally the versatile layout provides the option of multi-generational use with two bedrooms and bathroom facilities on the ground floor. Two separate entrances could also assist in dividing the ground and first floor.

The main living area features a south facing split level lounge with box bay window. Stairs lead to a bright dining room with windows to all elevations and access to the garden. There is a refitted kitchen with built in oven & hob, boiler room and utility room.

Upstairs a large landing with balcony, provides a seating area under a vaulted ceiling enjoying views over the cricket ground, down the Usk valley and towards Wentwood forest. 3 further bedrooms are accessed from the landing and a family shower room.

The property occupies an exceptional corner plot with low maintenance paved gardens with inset flower beds to 3 sides. A driveway provides parking with further garden beyond laid mainly to lawn with bordering flower beds and green house. All enclosed by hedging, fencing and walling.

Services:
Mains electric, water and drainage. Oil heating
