The Property

Believed to date back to circa 1815, this delightful forest cottage has been recently refurbished by the current owners whilst retaining all the charm of the period with character features such as exposed ceiling beams and wood flooring.

The cottage is tucked away off the high street with private pedestrian access leading to the front entrance.

The entrance leads into a beautifully appointed character kitchen which has been recently fitted with a range of modern units set alongside complimenting quartz worksurfaces.

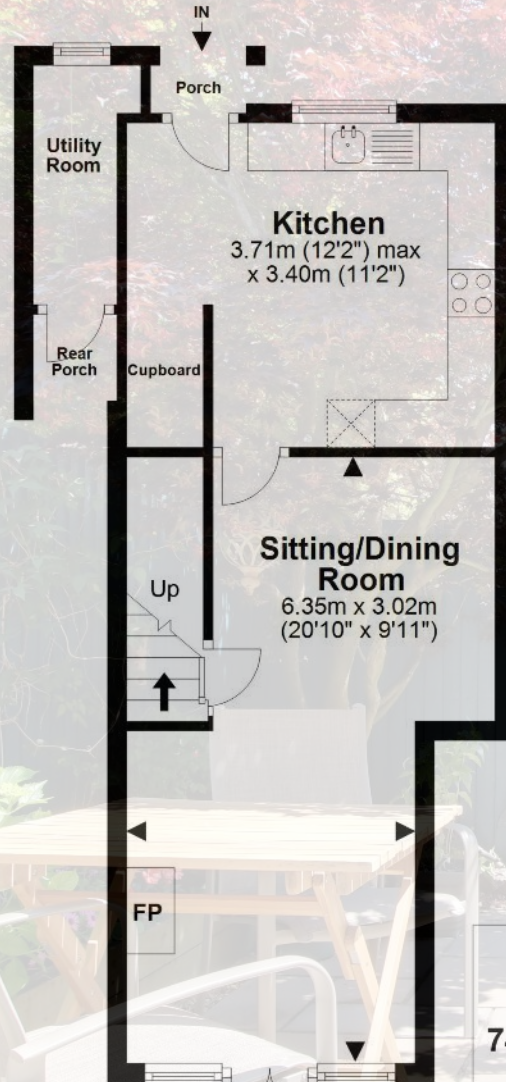

An extended area to the side of the kitchen gives you access to a separate utility room with door to the rear garden.

At the rear of the property is a pretty living room/dining area with French doors leading onto the lovely garden.

The living room accommodation stretches over 20ft giving a very bright and airy feel with the benefit of a gas burner stove and exposed brick surround.

An enclosed staircase from the dining area leads to the first floor landing area which links the principal bedroom, with in-built wardrobes, a guest double bedroom and refitted well appointed single bedroom or study room. A three-piece family shower room with wood panel surround and tiled flooring complete the first-floor accommodation.

Lyndhurst, situated in the heart of the New Forest National Park, provides an excellent range of amenities and facilities including a range of boutique shops and everyday stores, public houses, restaurants, hotels and a well-regarded primary school.

Southampton, by road, is about 8 1/2 miles distant and there are mainline rail services available at Brockenhurst and Ashurst, both approximately 4 miles away, with Brockenhurst also offering an excellent sixth form college. The M27 at Cadnam is within approximately 4 miles, giving access to Portsmouth and Bournemouth via the M27 and Winchester and London via the M3.

The Local Area

Lyndhurst has been known as the capital of The New Forest since William the Conqueror established it as a royal hunting ground in 1079, with Kings and Queens staying at the Royal Manor throughout the centuries. Lyndhurst is also home to the Forestry Commission and the Verderers' Court (Verderers are the guardians of the forest's rights and therefore protectors of the forest landscape).

The delightful High Street offers an eclectic mix of boutique shops and everyday stores including an old-fashioned sweet shop and award-winning butchers, as well as an art gallery, a vintage interiors shop and a Ferrari and Maserati showroom. There are numerous places to eat out, ranging from popular country inns, such as The Royal Oak at Bank (a hamlet within the parish boundary) to Lime Wood, a country house hotel with a highly regarded restaurant and luxurious spa.
