Centrally located, this unique 4-bedroomed character detached house has many original features, an annexe and parking for 4 cars. The property boasts two spacious reception rooms, perfect for entertaining guests or for quiet family evenings. The kitchen/diner offers ample space for food preparation and eating, making it the hub of family interactions. In addition to the family bathroom, there is another en-suite shower room. Viewing is highly recommended.

The property also has some unique features that set it apart:

- * The split-level living room has an open fire and bi-fold doors bringing the garden into the room and also offering a cosy atmosphere during the colder months.
- * The dining room has a serving hatch which makes easy access to the kitchen.
- * The functional cellar provides extra storage space and can be utilised as an exercise area.
- * A self contained barn annexe with shower room and kitchenette acting as bedroom 5/office.
- * Off road parking for 4-5 cars.
- * A south facing and very private garden with fruit tree, vegetable area, mature flower beds, barbeque area and timber sheds.

In summary, this is a remarkable family home that offers spacious living, unique features, and an excellent location. With its combination of comfort and convenience, this property is not to be missed.
