Being spoilt for choice is a luxury, and having Barbournes amenities, Gheluvelt Park and The Pitchcroft all within striking distance, means that whichever choice you make.... it will be the right one !

Of course you could just choose to stay at home in your garden, soaking up some sun in the south facing rear garden or even hide away in your own double garage.

And just when you think you have made all your choices, you will have to choose which of the two reception rooms you would like to relax in and which of the four bedrooms is to be yours.

Choosing to view this three storey family home, with its four bedrooms, two reception rooms, kitchen and four piece bathroom is the start of your journey, so call us to book your viewing.
