

Regulated by:

Since 1989

Rare opportunity of acquiring a small parcel of land with Planning Consent for Stable Block for domestic private use and for livery purposes. Edge of popular Ceredigion community, West Wales.

Stags Head Land adjacent to Helen House, Llangeitho, Tregaron, Ceredigion. SY25 6SZ.

A/4561/AM - O.N.O.

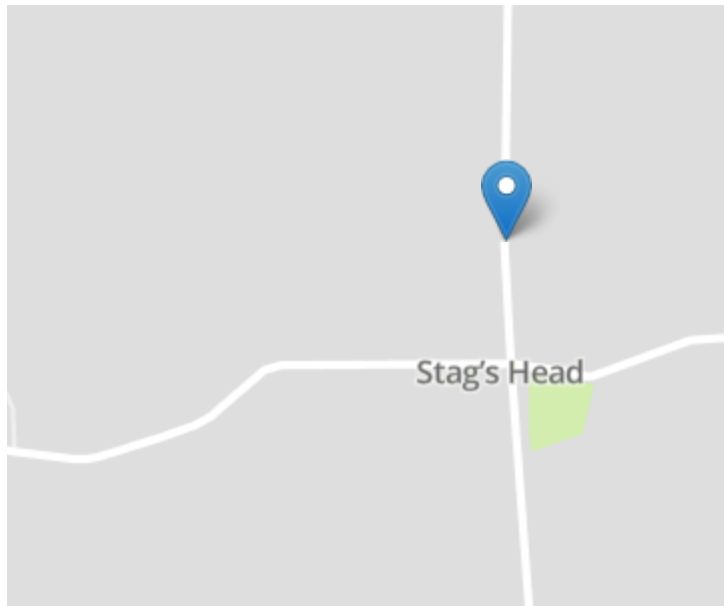

£69,950

The land has the benefit of natural water and mains water suppliesThe land extends in total to 2.385 acres (0.965 ha)The land is adjacent to a quiet B Class Council road with good wide gated access and is gently laid to pasture with adequate shelter

The land has approved Planning Consent for the creation of a Stable Block and associated Change of Use from agricultural to equestrian purposes (Stable Block to be used for a mixture of domestic, private and livery purposes including the regularisation of the existing highway access)This is an ideal opportunity to create a delightful country holding on the edge of a popular Ceredigion community within ease of access of local amenitiesPlanning conditions having been satisfied. Further details available from the agents ***

Stags Head is a popular rural hamlet located 3 miles South of Tregaron and 8 miles from the University town of Lampeter and 12 miles from Aberaeron.

Further details are available from the sole selling agents, Lampeter office.

Land 3*Entrance*Land 1*Services

Mains water connected, electricity available nearby.

Land 2Directions

From Lampeter take the A485 towards Tregaron, proceed through the villages of Bettws Bledwrs and Llangybi, continuing Llanio and turning left onto B4578 to Stags Head, proceed to the Stags Head crossroads where there is a garage and service station, proceed straight across and after approximately 100m the entrance to the land will be found on the left hand side.

